

Terms and Conditions of Membership

All members must:

- Abide by the Principles of the u3a movement which can be viewed here.
- Always act in the best interests of the u3a and never do anything to bring the u3a into disrepute.
- Abide by the terms and conditions of the constitution, a copy of which can be obtained from the Secretary.
- Treat fellow members with respect and courtesy at all times.
- Comply with and support the decisions of the elected committee.
- Advise the committee of any change in your personal details.

In addition, members are strongly encouraged to provide contact details of a family member or friend who can be contacted in case of an emergency.

Privacy Statement

By applying for or renewing your membership you give us permission to use the information you have supplied in the following ways:

- To store it securely for membership management purposes.
- To communicate with you as a u3a member.
- To share with group administrators for those groups that you are a member of.
- To send you general information about the Third Age Trust (the national organisation to which u3a associations are affiliated).
- To allow images or digital media resulting from filming our activities to be used expressly for purposes supporting the objectives of the u3a.
- If you have requested the Third Age Trust magazines, you agree to us sharing your data with the company who oversee the distribution of these magazines.

More detailed information regarding Bookham & District U3A's policies can be found on the website by clicking here, or are available for viewing at the regular monthly meetings in the Barn Hall.